Numb. 4928

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 17. to Tuesday November 20. 1711.

Hamburgh, Novemb. 28. N. S.

ALTHOUGH we have had many Reports of the Arrival of the Daniſh Artillery near Grypeſwaid, it appears now, that they had receiv'd no certain Advice of that Fleet till the Sixth Inſtant, at which time it came to an Anchor in the Height of Rugen, at a Place call'd Dors, about three Leagues from Stralſund. Three of their Veſſels, laden with Bombs and Carcaſſes, had the Misfortune to run on the Banks of Sand, where they were all loſt: And our laſt Letters from Pomerania adviſe, that the reſt of the Ships had ſuffer'd extreamly in a late Storm, inſomuch that the whole Fleet was diſpers'd, twelve of the Ships, with part of the Artillery on Board, having been driven into Roſtock, and the reſt forced to retire towards Holſtein. According to our Letters from Guſtrow, eight of thoſe Ships which put into Roſtock have been ſince burnt by a Party of Suedes detach'd from the Garriſon in Wiſmar. Notwithſtanding theſe Diſappointments, the Allies continue fix'd in the Reſolutions taken to attack the Iſle of Rugen. Accordingly, they have choſen out Eight thouſand of the beſt Men in the whole Army to be employ'd in that Expedition, and have given 'em a Ducat a-piece to encourage 'em in the Service. The Suedes having of late much interrupted the Communication between this City and Wiſmar, a Muſcovite Regiment, conſiſting of Six hundred Horſe, hath been detach'd from the Army before Stralſund; and as theſe Muſcovites move in ſtrong Parties through the Dutchy of Mecklenburgh, this will effectually contribute to the entire Ruin of that Country. On the Second Inſtant, at Ten-a-clock at Night, a terrible Fire broke out at Altena, and continu'd till near Ten the next Morning; during which time, upwards of One hundred Houſes were deſtroyed: and if the Inhabitants had not receiv'd Aſſiſtance from hence, the whole City would, in all Probability, have been reduced to Aſhes. The Czar of Muſcovy arriv'd the Eleventh Inſtant at Elbing, from whence he propos'd to proceed, in five or ſix Days time, to Petersburgh; whereupon Orders have been ſent to Koningsberg, to prepare every thing there for his Majeſty's magnificent Reception at that Place. The Danes have been promis'd a large Supply of Mony from that Prince, and accordingly expect great Remittances next Week by the way of Amſterdam and this City. They give out, that his Majeſty will make the next Campaign in Perſon, and bring an Army of Thirty thouſand Men into Pomerania.

Hanover, Novemb. 20. N. S. The Right Honorable the Earl Rivers, who return'd hither from the Court at Geure on the Tenth Inſtant, went the next Day to the Caſtle, where he preſented the young Princeſs, the Queen of Great Britain's God-Daughter, with Her Majeſty's Picture richly ſet in Diamonds. Early the next Morning, the Earl left this Place, in order to return to England. The Body of Horſe, and two Companies of the Foot-Guards, ſent to Quarter in the Biſhoprick of Hildeſheim, are return'd from thence, purſuant to the Orders they had received from his Electoral Highneſs. They write from Breſlaw, that Aſoph has been deliver'd up to the Turks, and that the Ottoman Army was thereupon ſeparated. Theſe Letters add, That the Grand Vizir having at length conſented that the King of Sueden ſhould continue this Winter at Bender, was himſelf return'd to Conſtantinople; into which Place he was to make a publick Entry. The Elector of Hanover propoſeth to continue three Weeks longer with the Court at Geure.

Bruſſels, Novemb. 23. N. S. They write from the Frontiers, that the Enemy had lately laden ſeveral Boats with Forage at Charleroy, in order to ſend them up the Sambre; but upon Advice that the Garriſon of Binch had notice of it, and was in motion to endeavour to intercept them, they deſiſted from their Deſign; and as the Fortifications of that Place are now in a good Condition of Defence, it is believ'd, the Troops poſted there will be able to prevent them from making any Magazines on the Sambre. The Brabant Regiment of Meldeghem, is Quarter'd at Vilvorde, for the Security of the Navigation between this Place and Antwerp, and has been employ'd with ſuch good Succeſs, that none of the Enemies Parties have of late infeſted the Paſſage on this Canal. The Right Honourable the Earl of Orrery, the Queen of Great Britain's Plenipotentiary for the Affairs of theſe Countries, left this Place three Days ago, in order to paſs into England. Letters by the way of France, from the Armies in Catalonia adviſe, that General Wetzel had attempted to ſurpriſe Tortoſa, but being diſcover'd by the Enemy, before any of his Men could throw themſelves into the Town, and perceiving that the Garriſon was aſſembled, and prepar'd to make a very great Reſiſtance, he thought fit to retire with his Party, and deſiſt from that Enterprize. They write from Paris, that the Army in Savoy being ſeparated, a Detachment had been made from thence of Eight thouſand Foot, and Two thouſand Horſe to the Lampourdan; and that the Duke de Noailles was making Inſtances at Court for a further Reinforcement of Twelve Battalions more. The Duke of Anjou was expected on the Twenty-ſixth of the laſt Month at Alcala. Mareſchal Villars is return'd to Court, and found a very favourable Reception from the King his Maſter, who approv'd of all he had done the laſt Campaign in Flanders, declaring that it was purſuant to the ſeveral Orders and Inſtructions he had receiv'd from his Majeſty. They write from the Upper Rhine, that the French guard their Lines there with all imaginable Caution, being apprehenſive that the Prince of Savoy has been forming ſome Deſign to ſurprize them.

Hague, Novemb. 27. N. S. On Sunday laſt, his Excellency the Earl of Strafford, the Imperial Miniſters, and thoſe of Muſcovy, were in Conference together